Toured the World.

A dispatch from Philadelphia says: "I ain't got a cent, but I'll be home in three weeks," said Guy Krumm, aged 15, Danville, Ky., who arrived yesterday with two other boys on the American liner Friesland, from a two years' tour of the world. The other two specimens of young America were Otto Ford, 18 years old, of Seattle, and Glenn Howell, of Atlanta. It was in November, 1904, that the boys ran away. They met in Chicago and made their way to Seattle before shipping on the Marion Frazier, for New Zealand. Ford and Howell shipped as able seamen, and Krumm, owing to his youth, was accepted as cabin boy. The boys sailed about 33,000 miles. Twice on their voyage they nearly starved. Young Krumm is a son of Police Officer Krumm, of Danville, who was killed in a blind tiger at Danville several years ago by a negro, who was hanged for the deed. The last the boy's family heard of him he was in Liverpool.

Jesse James, Jr.

The career of Jesse James, son of the famous outlaw of that name reads like a romance. He is now a full fledged lawyer, having passed the State Board examinations at Kansas City, Mo., at the head of a class of 37. His average in all branches was 91 per cent. Jesse started life at the foot of the ladder if ever anyone did—the son of an outlaw, left an orphan at the age of six, without money, and with the heritage of a bad name. One of the trying incidents of his life was his arrest and trial for train robbery, just at the time when he was on the road to prosperity and to an honored manhood. He was however acquitted, after a long trial. After this Jesse worked harder than ever, and today he is worth $10,000, every cent of which he has made himself. He has two children and lives in a house of his own at Kansas City.

Testing the Law.

It will be a long time before all the laws passed by the recent Legislature shall have been tried out in the courts and their constitutionality established.

The latest to be attacked is the one establishing the two Normal Schools, which is on trial before Judge Stout at Frankfort on a petition from Bell county to restrain the Auditor from paying over money to the Board of Regents. The claim of the plaintiffs is that under the provisions of the Constitution of the State a vote of the people is necessary to the expenditure of money other than for common school purposes. The claim of attorneys on the other side is that the Normal School is necessary to the successful conduct of the common schools and that it was within the power of the General Assembly to establish the schools and provide for maintaining them out of the public treasury.

Traction Promoters Visit Paris.

John Blair McAfee, of Philadelphia, head of the traction syndicate which owns and controls the Lexington street railway system and the interurban lines, with a party of men identified with the traction interests were in Paris Wednesday. It is understood that the party is here to confer with general manager R. T. Gunn in regard to contemplated improvements in the system and to look over the route of the proposed lines to the surrounding Blue Grass towns.

Those comprising the party were John Blair McAfee, Philadelphia I. L. Ottenheimer, Pomeroy, O., F. L. Dove and E. R. Coffin, New York, and Robert H. Allison, Ardmore, Pa.

Not Ready to Resign.

James Hargis entered an emphatic denial yesterday morning to the story that he would resign from the Democratic State Central Committee. He said no efforts had ever been made by any prominent Democrats to get him to resign. He said the press had made war on him and demanded his resignation, but that no member of the committee or the State administration had ever mentioned that matter to him.

Decision Against Rectifiers.

An opinion of the Attorney General, concurred in by the Auditor, is to the effect that rectifiers are required to pay on all spirits, rectified, adulterated or blended by them, whether it be straight distilled spirits, known as double-stamp spirits or single-stamp spirits, thereby producing what is known as single-stamp spirits.

Dr. Gilky's Office Burned.

The office of Dr. John A. Gilkey at North Middletown was burned Tuesday night from an unknown cause. The loss on the house is about $600. A number of fine surgical instruments and medicines were ruined. But for a force of pumps vigorously used, many other houses would have been burned.

Kimball By Acclamation.

Judge Lee, of Owen, executive committeeman from the Seventh district, called the Congressional convention to select a Democratic nominee, to order at 1:10 o'clock at Frankfort yesterday and appointed S. J. Douthitt temporary secretary.

A roll call showed every county represented.

Rogers Clay, of Lexington, nominated Percy Haley, of Franklin, for temporary chairman, and his reference to Bryan as the peerless leader was greeted with loud applause.

John W. Douglass, of Owen, seconded Haley's nomination.

Campbell Cantrill said he believed in an equal division of honors, that Haley had been honored enough and nominated for temporary chairman Denis Dundon, of Bourbon county.

Haley was overwhelmingly elected, Bourbon and Scott only voting for Dundon. Oldham cast two votes for Dundon and two for Haley. S. J. Douthitt, of Henry, was made temporary secretary. On motion of Moses Kaufman, of Lexington, the temporary chairman was authorized to appoint one delegate from each county on the committee on resolutions, credentials and organization. The convention took a recess for thirty minutes to give the committee time to prepare its report.

Upon convening the temporary organization was made permanent upon the recommendation of the committee, the committee on credentials having found no contests.

The resolutions condemned trusts, endorsed the national platform and Bryan, the administration of Governor Beckham and the calling of a State primary election of United States Senator. The resolutions were unanimously adopted.

James H. Mulligan, of Lexington, nominated W. P. Kimball. He said he was nominating a man who is already nominated, but he made an eloquent speech anyway. H. K. Bourne, of Henry, nominated B. F. Hill, of Henry. W. P. Swope was also nominated.

The first ballot was partially taken and resulted:

For Kimball—Fayette, Franklin, Scott and Bourbon. Total 66.

For Hill—Henry. Total 11.

For Swope—Owen. Total 15.

For J. S. Morris—Oldham. Total 4.

The other candidates were withdrawn and Kimball's nomination was made unanimous.

Woodford's eight votes would have been cast for Kimball but the roll call was never completed on account of the withdrawal of other candidates and a motion to make Kimball's nomination unanimous.
